ALLERTON
PARK & RETREAT CENTER

MAP

Built as a private residence by artist and philanthropist Robert Allerton in 1900, Allerton Park and Retreat Center offers a unique opportunity to experience art, nature, and history away from the distractions of everyday life. Explore 14 miles of hiking trails, wander through formal gardens filled with sculptures, marvel at the century-old Mansion, and find peace while visiting the expansive grounds.

Organized programs open to the community include concerts, summer camps, themed dinners, educational events, nature hikes, and public tours. Find more information at allerton.illinois.edu.
